OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

WILLIAMSBURG.

Williamsburg, Dec. 2.—Will you allow a stranger to enter your family? If so, would like to join your happy band. Perhaps some one will want to know where Williamsburg is. It is on the briks of old Snow Creek, near Snow Creek bridge, and a prettier little place would be hard to find.

Mrs. R. B. Church visited Mrs. Mar. shall Roberts last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gray of Saw dust Valley, were visiting in our midst last week

Mr. A. J. Dawson visited Little Lot Mr. Winfield Harris and wife and little daughter Verna May are visiting in Mt. Pieasant. Miss Lena Latta was visiting Turkey Creek friends last week.

Miss Bertha Walters visited the Misser Sewins Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. R. J. Woody, who has been right sick, is some better.

On Sunday before Thanksgiving Bro. Ausban invited the entire community to take dinner with him on that day. So bright and early Thursday. people began to stir around, and about 10:30 you could see them coming from every direction. There were about 75 in all, and all report a nice time and a bountiful supply of every thing that would tempt the most fastidious. All came away thanking and praising Bro. Ausban and his sweet little wife.

Misses Lucille and Katie Roberts. who are attending school in Santa Fe visited homefolks in Roberts' Bend Sat urday and Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Anderson is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Otto Beasley and mother Mrs. Berry, visited Mrs. Dock Weston Knob Creek last week.

It was with a sad beart that we read the death of little Willie Bell Lansdown. Weep not dear father and mother; remember that Willie Bell is not dead, but only sleeping; that she is waiting and watching for you to come up to that beautiful home. LORENA.

Get What You Ask For!

When you ask for Cascarets Candy Cathartic be sure you get them. Texas, where he will resume his prac-Genuine tablets stamped C. C. C. tice. Never sold in bulk. A substitutor is always a cheat and a fraud. Beware! All druggists, roc.

TIMMONS.

Timmons. Dec 1.—Bro. Allison filled the pulpit at Godwin chapel Thanksgiving. and preachedan interesting sermon to a large audience. I think we will be very much pleased with our new preacher this year.

Miss Annie Forgey has returned home after a pleasant visit to Columbia friends

Miss Bessie Allen has been the guest of Columbia friends since my last. Miss Anna Stone has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Charlie Stone.

We are glad to report Mrs. W. T. Fraser still improving. Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield Harris have been the guests of Mt. Pleasant rela-

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Galloway of main until Monday. Theta, have been visiting their father, Mr. Doc Fraser.

Miss Lula Hanks has been visiting Columbia friends.

Mrs. Cam Thomas and children are on the sick list.

LITTLE ECHO.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Signature of Chat Helther.

LASEA.

Lasea, Dec. 2.-As we have about regathered.

Elder W. Derrybatry is off on a preaching tour. Sharp's school-house the 3rd Sunday at Ere this old year has wound to a close, the wedding bells will ring a merry chime in a few homes around Lasea. Miss Hartie Lane, of Lovettville, was calling in our midst last week. Mr. W. F. Holman, who has been indisposed for some time, is improving. Mr. Martin Sharp and family of Kedron, will soon move to the residence now occupied by Mr. R S. Holman, and will put in a stock of goods in the new store, house Mr. Holman will go down on the Central pike near Columbia.

Several of the boys is our village were out hunting Saturday. LONESOME NELL.

Wheat Storage.

We are prepared to furnish you with sacks and store your wheat. You can get money on our receipts. This is the way to bridge over the present low prices. Bell Phone 79. Citizens' 102 Columbia Mercantile Storage Co. If

BIGBYVILLE.

Bigbyville, Dec. 3 -On last Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride' father in Mt. Pleasant, Mr. James Anderson and Miss Adrienne Foster were united in marriage, Rev. Mr. Cleveland pronouncing the cere-Immediately afterwards the bridal party drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Swan in this community, where an elegant reception was tendered them. Mrs. Anderson has several times visited in this community and has made many friends by her courteous demeanor and attractiveness. Mr. Anderson, we understand, is a very prosperous phosphate contractor. May their wedded life be one of continual bliss.

Mrs. E. C. Thompson and two children will move to Springfield to-morrow. Mrs. Thompson's departure is a source of genuine regret to her many friends in this community. She is a thoroughly consecrated christian woman, and her gentle influence will be greatly missed in the social circle and in her church. Miss Ethel Bryant, who has been teaching at Henderson, N. C., has returned to her home at this place, to the delight of her many friends. She was eccompanied home by her little niece, Miss Emma Reavis.

Miss Annie Scott has returned from Giles county, where she has been teach Mrs. J. N. Maxwell is back from Co lumbia, whither she went to assist in nursing Master Joe Waldo. Mr. C. J. Ward left last week for Dal-Miss Dovie Thurman spent last week

Mrs. J. B Erwin visited the family of 'Squive Holden leaves to-day for a visit to his daughter, Mrs. O. F. Thompson, of Huntsville, Ala. Mrs. Addie Thomas visited Columbia relatives Monday and Tuesday, and attended the Stewart revival. Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Rav are visiting he family of Rev. J. A. Mclloy at Co. lumbia, this week.

Mrs. John A. Thomas has been with the family of her son, Mr. Houston Thomas, near Columbia, the past week. Floyd Galbreath passed through the village yesterday on his return from a visit to Franklin.

Mr. J. H. Woody is visiting relatives atTheta and Thompson's Station.

Young Mules.

We have fifty big young mare mules for sale and trade; two, three and four years old. Columbia Mercantile Stor-

CULLEORA.

Sunday-school is making arrangement to have a Christmas tree the night before Christmas. Everybody in the community is invited to put their gifts on the tree. A short programme of music will be given before the distribution of the presents.

With the holidays will come the return of many of the children to the home nests. The school girls and boys and those off teaching, preaching and tianity at home—christianity that goes filling other positions, will rest at home again. Our Indian mission beautiful christian characters are those so on," he would name the blue grass preacher and family will gladden the Hillton home people, as will also Dr. Fowler, as he returns from New York

Mrs. Joe Love returned Friday night from a long visit to relatives in Mississippi. She greatly enjoyed her visit and her health is improved.

Jim Thomas spent Sunday here. He sold his fine bird dog last week for fifty dollars. Tom Ingram sold two a Mrs. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Erle Taylor and little Bert went to Franklin Friday to visit Mrs. W. B. Lupton. Flem and Jonas Thomas, Mrs. Will Moore, Misses Tomlinson Porter and Ezell went to Lynnville Monday night to the lectre at Jones High School.

Misses Loutie and May Tomlinson of the Normal college spent Thanksgiving at their homes here. Guests were entertained in Miss Loutie's honor on Thursday and Miss May had her friends dine with her on Sunday. their daughters on Wednesday, to re soon be strong enough for work. Mr. Clawson has been out buying potatoes paying a big price for them.

Some are being delivered now. Miss Martha Porter was absent from BARBARA. tonsilitis.

American Field Fence.

s what you want. See us for prices.

SATTERFIELD & DODSON.

REIMBURSE EX-CONFEDERATES.

Bill in the House.

covered from a severe case of sore throat, we will send in what few items we have of the terms of the surrender. Senator Spirit, and were willing to surrender have had every variety of weather Bate will have charge of the bill in all—to stand up. More than half the since December set in, from the sweet Bro. Sam Sewell will preach at Houses at the last session, but for Stewart was much effected over the violets, through rain and wind, up to not sign it.

Bulls for Sale.

Columbia Steck Yard Co.

HE mail orders sent to this store are filled by one of our corps of professional shoppers who goes from counter to counter and fills the order as conscientiously and carefully as you would likely do yourself. This service is far superior to that of ordering from ca alogue.

The Manix Store will allow you to buy from any of its special sale advertisements, providing you order the day following the date the advertisement appears in the Nashville papers.

SHOPPING by MAIL

BIGGEST and BEST STORE In Tennessee.

Samples Free on Request

The Fall Dress Goods are in.—Send for samples. They will be forwarded you at once, together with order blanks and instructions for ordering, etc. No matter what you want in wear for woman or for the adorment or use in the home, we can supply you. Write us your wants.

When in Nashville make this store your headquarters. Special reception rooms, waiting cooms and telephones for your use. Packages checked free and sent to the depot for you. Remember this is your store. It is the cheapest and best store. "Your money's worth or money back." The Fall Dress Goods are in,-

J. E. Manix Dry

Goods Company, Nashville, Tenn.

(Continued from First Page.)

Tuesday Evening.

Tuesday evening, who, in his introductory remarks, asked the church to get all right. He said that sin absolutely glorified, even as it is with you.' disconnected us with God, so far as Mr. Griff Walker, near Rock Springs, any prayer was concerned. God never heard a sinner's prayer only as he cried, "Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner!" The members of the church with holy hands.

Mr. Stuart took for his text. Gal. 6:10. He preached from this same opportunities one had to "be some-Mr. Stuart said that the beginning of gospel should do lixewise. of the perfunctory christianity in the rhetorical beauty of speech. Culleoka, Dec. 3.—The Methodist they meet on the streets. It is the little things of life that make life worth living. A christianity that does not work at home does not work anywhere. Christianity is the concentrated essence of happiness. It makes you happy here, and happy hereafter. It is the crucifixion on Calvary for the of every beautiful charity the world has ever seen. Oh, for greater chriswoman; save a little child. Such work as that will never die.

There are three kinds of opportunities: Opportunity taking, opportunity making, and opportunity breaking. God gives us all opportunities if few weeks ago for twenty-five dollars we take them. They are born of Stewart said. He graduated at Emory or more. power and opportunities that a mother medals, and when he started out to has, if she will use them.. How she can point the little ones to Christ, and wisely guide the husband. Oh, if we would live right and work right, how had quit all that now. People had we could lead people to Christ! Mr. Stewart's sermon was richly sandwiched with apt illustrations.

Wednesday Morning's Service.

There was a marvelous morning crowd at church at the 10 o'clock serv-Mrs. W. B. Smiser and Mrs. Annie ice to-day, the edifice being filled from Tomlinson went up to Nashville to see the chancel to the doors. Mr. Stewart remarks requested all who had asked a sinner to come to Sam Richardson was mingling with the services, to stand up. Many re-his friends here last week and will sponded. He also asked all who had gone personally and kneeled with sinners to pray since last night, to stand up. There was a response to that proposition also. This shows that the church is being aroused, and that the the school-room several days last week Christians are going to work. Many on account of an acute attack of sinners and non-church goers are attending the services, and their close attention and moist eyes were strong evidence of their interest. Mr. Stewart preached another effective sermon on the Holy Ghost. said he had not come here to build a corn stalk fire but he wanted to build a fire in the hearts of the people that would consume all uncleanness and impurities, and create old-fashioned Congressman Padgett Introduces a holy ghost regeneration. He wanted the people to help him in the work, and said human efforts would do no Washington, Dec. 3.—Representative good without the anointment of Jesus Padgett introduced a bill to re-imburse Christ. At the close of his sermon he the Senate. The bill passed both congregation rose to their feet. Mr. south wind blowing over a bed of some reason President McKinley did great response, and glad that the cold a small slice of a Dakota blizzard with not sign it.

great response, and glad that the cold a small slice of a Dakota blizzard with formality is broken and the Holy a slight fall of "the beautiful." But Spirit manifesting itself so plainly.

horn bull for sale: extra good ones. a glorious revival, for God is already led him to the feet of Christ.

the meeting, and for friends whom they wished to see saved.

Wednesday Evening.

in the meeting being manifested by crowds, and the prediction has proven night because they could not find seats. The splendid choral choir and congreand spiritual enthusiasm, while the in and abide. solos by Mr. Ramsey just before each sermon are so sweetly and effectively Mr. Stewart to close the service, he

The Largest Doll

the revival spirit in the atmosphere, because of the way the people sung. A dumb devil was a hard one to drive out. He delighted to get a hold of good men and women. He stirred up the bad people and kept the good ones down. The fine congregational singing was driving out the "dumb devil."

Mr. Stewart preached from 2nd ren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and

Mr. Stewart said that it was prayer meeting night all over the United States and he felt like exhorting. believed God called men to preach. believed that the Holy Spirit spoke to must get right, and come to the altar them so plainly they could understand the call to preach the unsearchable riches of the Lord Jesus Christ, and he believed that preachers become Carist's text Sunday, but he talked then on the words of love to the world. Christ spoke with authority. The aportles Last night's sermon was on were commissioned to preach with the opportunities of doing something, anthority, and the ministers of the these opportunities should start in the people might say it was not right to center, and that center is the individ- a point, but God used it all for His ual himself. Christianity that does glory. Spurgeon said a fine sermon not stand well at home is not the pure. was to be judged by its power to save genume stuff. Infidelity is born out men, and not by its elequence and home life. Bob Ingersoll's father was was so much twisting of scripture a preacher. Perhaps that home was these days to suit a body's own views. not what a christian home should be. The strength of the scripture-es-Our religion is not what it ought to pecially of these epistles-lay in knowbe at home. That's where, above all ing four things: Who wrote them; to places, we should have the genuine whom, where, and under what condi-Husbands and wives, parents tions they were written. People freand children, are not as kind to their quently quoted St. Paul's saying "Let best beloved as they are to strangers women keep silent," etc. In the same chapter the apostle tells the men to 'keep silent' twice, which gives the "right of way" at talking to the women. The badge of manhood and womanhood in olden times was "hair" now it's dress. He thought Colum bia had more card playing and worldliness in its homes than any place of happiness of others. It is the mother its size in Tennessee. If he should be asked "Where is the best place to locate, taking in consideration the beauty of landscape, fertility of soil, that have come forth through fiery regions of Virginia, Kentucky, Knox-trials and tribulations, and are purified ville and Columbia; but Columbia was ville and Columbia; but Columbia was and crystalized from the ordeal. Let us as we have opportunity do all the good we can. Talmage says we have done a great exploit if we do either of While Columbia was so worldly and three things: save a man, save a ungodly, there was a circle of as good Christian people here as ever watked the earth, and he asked them to pray for him. He believed in prayer. Some people criticized, instead of praying for the preacher. Many criticized his illustrations and slang Mr. preach he tried to be very learned and preached "George Stewart dignified, instead of Jesus Christ crucified. " been so learned and elegant that they had let the world go to the devil. Elegance and learning was all right, but the world must be saved at any cost. He asked the congregation to consider him as "their boy," and, like a mother, pray for "the boy" and lay down all criticism-don't hackle, but pray for me. If he could have the prayers of 100 good women, he would tackle hell-if it was missionary ground. He wanted prayers that God would empower His spoken word through him, so that his sermons would catch afire like a sedge grass field. He wanted prayer that God would save the boys, men, women and children of Columbia. At the close of the sermon he asked that all who would pray for the saving of souls and the outpouring of God's Holy Spirit, to come and shake hands with him. It seemed that half of the immense congregation responded. He then asked that all-church members or sinners-who felt like they were not right in the sight of God, and wanted to get right, to come and give him their hands. Quite a number responded to this proposition. The benediction was pronounced and all went

Thursday Mornings Service.

The weather clerk seems to be trying himself for the last few days. the capricious pranks of the weather It was a great meeting. One min- does not deter the people-neither saint ister said he had never seen the like nor sinner-from attending the revival We have one red Poll and one short in Columbia before. All are expecting services at the Methodist church. The church was filled again yesterday pouring his spirit out upon the peo- Mr. Stewart begun the service by an impressive little talk to the christians The music is soul stirring and has on prayer for their unsaved friends. as much to do with reviving religious And preached a fine sermon from John fervor as anything said from the pul-pit. A beautiful, simple song has often christanity''—the christian character won a person from wrong doing and and its product; the christian life and its results. He took up all the christian A number of Christians remained graces and expatiated upon what they after the morning service to pray for were, their beauties, and how they could be obtained. In his closing remarks he scathed card-playing in the homes for "trinkets," and said it did more harm to the boys of a town than | The Methodist church can seat more the gambling den. The punch-bowl, cople than any other church in Co- with whiskey in it, also came in for lumbia, but it is a question of space its share of blistering. It was the now, the great and increasing interest wine-bibbing and sipping from the in the meeting being manifested by punch-bowl in so-called christian every day at the First Methodist Review, while of absorbing interest and such large crowds. It was predicted nomes that gave the boy the thirst at the commencement of the services that was quenched at the saloons. He that the auditorium would not hold the believed the ministers of the town should be more emphatic in what they true. Many turned away Wednesday said in regard to card-playing, theater going, wine drinking and dancing, The church would have to get rid of gational singing is increasing in volume all such before the Lord could come sung, the hearts of the audience are put into a receptive frame.

Mr. Stewart said in his introductory remarks last night that he could feel all the cards in their homes, and make the service, he informing service. Twelve men stood up in response. "Twelve business houses closed! That's pretty good for a beginning," he said. "but we must do better than that, if we expect to shake CHICHE!

in Columbia will be given FREE to the most popular little girl in the county. With every purchase of 25c at our store, you are entitled to one vote; 50c, two votes; $1.00, four votes, and so

This contest to close Dec. 21st,

SELLING OUT ock, Stock and Barrel,

Despite the damp, cold night, a full Mr. Stewart preached from 2nd house greeted Rev. George Stewart Thessalonians 3:1—"Finally, breth on the West Side of the Public Square, adjoining Farmers Not to leave town, but to remove to our New Quarters and Merchants Bank, by January 1st, 1902, and much prefer our triends and customers to move our stock instead of us; and not a shadow of doubt exists in our mind, that the He low prices of which we only give an index below, will accomplish our desire.

All of our Calicoes, none excepted—and we carry Standard goods onlygo at ... 4360 Heavy Brown Domestic, full yard wide, go at ... 4360 Very heavy Cheviot for Shirts, go at..... Infant Shoes, sizes 3 and 4 Babies' Shoes, siz s 5 and 6. Children's heavy and durable School Shoes, 6, 7 and 8 only..... 63 Pair Misses' Dongola, first class Dress 5 hoss, sizes 11, 12 and 13 Good quality Men's Shoes, Lace and Congress. $100 Children's 3 Piece Dress Suits, with double-breasted Vests 125 Children's Jersey Suits, neatly trimmed....... 1 30 Boys' Knee Pants, from 15c up. Youths Suits, coat, pants and Vest, splendid quality Men's Business Suits, worth $5.00 ... 2.74
Men's Corduroy Suits, elegantly made, heavy quality ... 6.00 Men's Black Diagonal Worsted Suits..... Men's Heavy Genuine B ue Flannel Suits, in round or square cut, worth $10 00, go with this sale at..... 6 25

Doing business for the last 14 years in the well and favorably known BEE HIVE corner, we decided to make a move. All our Fixtures, such as

Show Cases, Lamps, Stove,

and anything in the Fixture line is for sale at a very low price, in order to commence in our New Home with a Brand New Stock and Fixtures.

GRAPHOPHONE

Prices $5 to $150

ENTERTAINS EVERYBODY EVERYWHERE

SEND FOR CATALOGUE 34

COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPH COMPANY NO E. Baltimore Street, BALTIMORE, MD.

good resolves about the punch-bowl. the sin out of this town." He hoped some of the women present would go home and say to their children, "here children, your drinking. gambling old mother has reformed; sne home feeling it was good to have been intends to set you a better example in the future, and have more respect for her christian character. Le hoped tnat Columbia's faithful City Marshal, who had climbed up on the tops of houses to catch some of the low down in the morning and 7 in the evening.

men gamblers, would slip up on some Mr. Stewart has requested the ushers of the high-toned women gamblers to allow no one to come to the front and arrest them. There is just as seats after he takes his text and begins much harm, said the speaker, in play- preaching. ing euchre for a five dollar trinket, as there is in playing poker for a five dollar bill. If you are going gamble, put up the money: gamble for trinkets that are worth nothing after you get them. He had more respect, he said, for a man who would sell whiskey for a living, than in stock. Come quick and get choice. for an old church sister who would dish it out free to her guests. No use of the men of the town trying to close the saloons at 8 o'clock in the evening, while the women were drinking and gambling day and night at nome.
"Am I right?" he asked the preachers, and they all said he was. ··· Am I right, sisters?" he said to the congregation, and quite a number responded "Then in God's name purify the church," he said.

FOR MEN ONLY.

Fifteen minuts prayer meeting, comchurch during the revival service, to unquestioned value to horsemen, pro which all the men of the town and invited. country are cordially Strangers, visitors, saints and sinners, young and old, all are included in this invitation.

Mr. Stewart asked last night how morning service. Twelve men stood up

Quite a number of people from the country are in attendance upon the services, especially the day Many others, no doubt, will take advantage of this opportunity to hear Mr. Stewart preach, if the weather will permit. Services begin promptly at 10 o'clock

Mr. Ramsey still delights the andience with his impressive solos.

Big Bargains.

For thirty days we will sell surries and phaetons at cut prices. Too many See Satterfield & Dodson.

The Christmas Horse Review. Of the several tur! publications that issue a special holiday number, the Horse Review has been a leader. Year after year the Christmas Review has been a welcome visitor to our exchange table, and we have invariably found each edition an improvement on its predecessor The pictorial features, the special contributions by writers of note. the stories of the great horses of the year, and above all, the statistical tabl s. which practically ante-date the Year fessional and amateur, is meant also for the family. There is meat in it for the general reader, humor and pathos, some of the ablest pens giving their best thoughts to its pages.

The Christmas Review will be issued Dec. 10, at the usual price, 25 cents per copy, which includes all the beautitude As the time was about up for many business houses closed for the supplements. For copies, address The Horse Review, 910 Masonic Temple,

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH. PENNYROYAL PILLS

CHICKESTER CHEMICAL CO.

THE RED SEAL BAKERY. Headquarters for Cakes, Candies, Nuts, Fruits. Etc.